

Chartered Status in other professions

Organisation	Title / Designatory letters	Description	Requirements	Fee for Chartered registration/ assessment
Institute of Occupational Safety & Health (IOSH)	Chartered Safety and Health Practitioner CMIOSH	“gold standard” “top of the profession” etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Accredited qualification/degree Graduate Member status completion of Initial Professional Development (IPD) scheme: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Maintain CPD Skills portfolio (to be completed in no more than two years) Peer review interview IPD will take between two and five years to complete. CMIOSH Chartered Member / IPD route 1 IOSH	£160 (initial IPD Registration)

Chartered Trading Standards Institute (CTSI)	Chartered Trading Standards Practitioner CTSP	“the highest accolade CTSI bestows on trading standards professionals” “acknowledgement of exceptional standing”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full Member • Degree (etc) • Evidence of Trading Standards Knowledge through accredited qualifications or reflective statement. • CPD log • Personal Development Plan Chartered Trading Standards Practitioner requirements	£50 Chartered registration fee Additional reflective statement fee of £242+VAT required in some cases
Royal Environmental Health Institute of Scotland (REHIS)	Chartered Environmental Health Officer Ch.EHO MREHIS Ch.EHO FREHIS	“highest possible professional status and recognises an individual’s professional qualifications, training, experience within, and commitment to, environmental health practice.”	All members of the Institute who are Environmental Health Officers can achieve and maintain chartered status subject to complying with the Institute’s Scheme of Continuing Professional Development (CPD) for a minimum continuous three-year period. In addition, members must also comply with Institute’s regulations governing professional conduct and discipline. Chartered EHO Status - REHIS	No additional fee for becoming Chartered?

Chartered Institute of Housing (CIH)	Chartered membership CIHCM	“gold standard” / “We often see individuals who are senior managers, aspiring leaders and experienced professionals, apply for this grade.”	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. CIH recognised qualification at Level 5 or above 2. “APEX” online programme 3. Experiential routes. https://www.cih.org/about-membership/membership-grades/chartered-membership-cihcm	No additional £182 £1300/£1500
Chartered Institute of Building CIOB	Chartered Builder Chartered Construction Manager MCIOB		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Degree + Professional Development Programme (logbook inc communication skills, can be done in 3 months but is usually between 1 and 3 years); or • Degree + significant experience + Professional Review https://www.ciob.org/membership/professional-review	Professional Review: £329
Chartered Institute of Marketing CIM	Chartered Marketer CMktr	“...recognised internationally... stand out from your peers, secure new opportunities ...demonstrates you stay up to date and relevant.”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • First become a graded member • Then complete two consecutive years of Continuing Professional Development (CPD), • Finally, pass the Chartered Marketer Assessment (multiple choice). https://www.cim.co.uk/membership/chartered-marketer-status/	No additional fee for becoming Chartered

Chartered Institute of Arbitration CI Arb	Chartered Arbitrator C.Arb	“Advanced knowledge and understanding of arbitration and its practical application, evidencing a professional approach to parties and the public interest.”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Degree • Ten years experience (with some specified tasks/duties) • CV • Specific examples of work • References • Fellowship • Pass a Chartered Arbitrator peer interview https://ciarb.org/membership/membership-types/chartered-arbitrator/	Chartered interview: £240
Chartered Institute of Public Relations CIPR	Chartered Public Relations Practitioner Chart.PR	“professional distinction”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Member or Fellow grade • Logging CPD • evidence of commitment to life-long learning, which can include CIPR CPD, CIPR Qualifications/Training, or other evidence of recent professional development in public relations. • Assessment based on case studies: ethics/strategy/leadership. Group discussions. Peer review of CPD plan. Chartership (cipr.co.uk)	Chartership Assessment: £300 + VAT.